Inspiration (presented by Benjamin Lam)

Recognizing the Bloomington students who stood up and did the right thing in a tough situation.

Principal's Report

- Adjustments made to the iReady goals for both Reading and Math based on the data from the beginning of the school year.
- GMAS projections are looking promising for this year.
- Family Engagement
 - We have recently hired a new Family Engagement Facilitator at Bloomington (Kysha Dubarie)
 - We are working towards having a Family Engagement activity every month.
 - Trunk or Treat happening at the end of October.
- Volunteers
 - We are once again allowing volunteers in the school.
 - All volunteers must go through Operation Beacon before coming into the school. Volunteers can be referred to Ms. Dubarie for Beacon assistance if needed.
- Hurricane Update
 - No news as of yet. Bloomington will begin to prepare materials for students in the case of a school closure.

Ideas for 2022-2023

- Playground equipment

- PTA is looking into purchasing outside equipment for students to use during recess using a portion of the money raised with the chocolate fundraiser.
- Library Access
 - Our school library is back open. Please encourage students to check out books!
- Field Trips Are Back!
- PBIS
 - We are working on creating a rewards system to recognize positive behaviors here at Bloomingdale.
 - We are also working on some for of recognition for those students who are working hard on their behavior. Positive behavior deserves to be celebrated!
- Elections for School Council
 - Teacher elections will take place October 12th
 - Information for parents/guardians will be sent home 2 weeks prior to parent/guardian elections
- Business Partners
 - We need to start looking for business partners to join our team.
